Nature of Case (Nature of case and disposition below. Attach additional page if necessary.)
Plaintiffs sought a declaration that Maryland's restrictions on the public carry of handguns in certain sensitive places were unconstitutional under the Second and Fourteenth Amendments to the United States Constitution. The United States District Court for the District of Maryland granted the State's Motion for Summary Judgment as to plaintiffs' claims challenging restrictions in various locations. The District Court, however, granted the plaintiffs' motion for summary judgment as to the claims regarding Maryland's laws restricting the carrying of firearms in: (1) locations selling alcohol for onsite-consumption (2) private buildings or property without the owner consent; and (3) within 1,000 feet of a public demonstration.

Issues (Non-binding statement of issues on appeal. Attach additional page if necessary)

Whether the District Court erred in concluding that Maryland's laws restricting the carrying of firearms, including in (1) locations selling alcohol for onsite-consumption (2) private buildings or property without the owner consent; and (3) within 1,000 feet of a public demonstration, are unconstitutional under the Second Amendment.
